3. Selection of coaches

- Coaches will submit a letter of intent for a coaching position prior to tryouts with all required paper work. The letters will be evaluated and coaches will be appointed by the Board of Directors.
- A Manager needs to be appointed by the Board of Directors at the Minor and Major League levels prior to tryouts taking place. Volunteers interested in Managers positions are encouraged to attend the clinics. This will be used to determine Managers positions.
- A Manager of an existing team will not be allowed to apply for the position of a Manager of a different team.
- An Assistant Coach of an existing team will not be allowed to apply for the position of an Assistant Coaching job of a different team.
- If a Manager's position is open at the Major or Minor League level, the following sequence of opportunity will be used to consider who gets that position:
 - Assistant Coaches of that team
 - Assistant Coaches from other Major League teams
 - Managers from Minor League teams
 - Assistant Coaches from Minor League teams
 - Designated Coaches
 - New Volunteer Coach

DERBY LITTLE LEAGUE BY-LAWS

- If an Assistant Coach from another team is appointed the Manager's position of a different team, and they have a son or daughter that will be transferred from their existing team, that player will be ranked (Ranking System) and a trade will be worked out as fair compensation for that team's loss. The Player Agent will be the deciding vote in the event of a disagreement.
- If a coach is already associated with a team and their son or daughter is coming up from the minors or coach pitch, that player will be associated with that team and the Ranking System will be used for that player (unless determined otherwise by the Board of Directors).

4. Relationships and relatives

- Only a coach's son or daughter will play on the same team that their parent coach's for (unless otherwise decided by the parent/coach and approved by the Board of Directors).
- Brothers and sisters will play for the same team (unless otherwise decided by the parents and approved by the Board of Directors).
- The request to have a nephew, cousin or other family related member play for the same team will only be allowed if the Board of Directors approve the decision before the draft occurs.
- If the request to have a nephew, cousin or other family related member play for the same team comes up during the draft, the Managers and Player Agent must all be in agreement.

5. Ranking System for draft round determination

- The Player Agent and/or associated League Director will get together with the Managers of the associated league to determine the ranking of a player.
- The ranking of a player (draft round) will be determined by the comparative evaluation and simple majority of the Managers. The Player Agent will be the deciding vote in the event of a disagreement.
- Once the draft round has been determined, the team that gains this player will lose that associated round's draft pick.
- If two or more players will be added to the same team prior to the draft (Coach's son, brother or trade), the League President, Player Agent and another Officer will review the transactions and make the necessary decisions for compensation to the other teams.
- If a coach has a child on a major league team already and that child will be moving to a new team with their parent, compensation will be determined by the League President, Player Agent and another Officer for the team losing that player.

6. Tryouts

- Players eligible to play at the Major League or Minor League levels must attend tryouts or possibly forfeit their eligibility to play at that level.
- If a player does not attend tryouts, an excuse must be presented and accepted by the League President, Player Agent and another Officer.
- Only approved list of volunteers will be allowed during tryouts. No Exceptions.

7. The Draft

- Minors: All 10 and 11 year olds that are available must be drafted.
- Majors: If there are 3 or more 12 year olds that need to be drafted, a team that needs to select 3 or more players in the draft must select at least one 12 year old as one of their selections

- The order of the draft will be based on the outcome of the prior season's regular season record. The team with the worst record will pick first and the team with the best record will pick last. Head-to-head results will be used to break ties between teams with the same records.

8. Number of coaches for a game

- If a team only has one roster coach for a game, they may get assistance from another roster coach from a different team.

9. Player Pool/Agent

- The Player Agent will assign temporary players to teams who do not have enough players come game-time.
- At the beginning of the year, the Player Agent will create a random list of Major League players that are interested in being part of the Player Pool.
- As soon as a manager knows he is in danger of not having enough kids, he is to inform the player agent. The player at the top of the list will be called first. If he is not available to play, then the next name in the list will be called.
- Once a player has participated from the Player Pool list, their name will be checked off and added to the end of the list.
- The managers cannot pick from the list, they must take whoever is given to them by the Player Agent.
- At no time will a coach be allowed to call a player from another team to fill a slot (the penalty for doing so will result in forfeiture of the game he played in).
- The Player Pool is only to be used if you do not have enough players.
- If at game time you have 9 or more of your own players and have called up a player pool kid, your roster players will play the majority of the game and the player pool kid will only be allowed the minimum 6 defensive outs and one at bat.
- If you have less than 9 players, the player pool kid will bat last in your batting order and can only play in the outfield or catcher (they are not allowed to pitch for your team).
- The player pool kid(s) cannot come from the team you are playing against that day.
- If the next player in the list is not available or is ineligible to play that day, they will be skipped and remain at the top of the list.

10. Rain Dates and Make-up Games

- All rain-outs or other games against other Derby Teams that are cancelled will be made up on the next available open date determined by the League Director(s).
- Due to field shortages, it is desired that make-up games be rescheduled in the same calendar week even if it results in back-to-back games for both teams.
- Since each team has a minimum of two assistant coaches; make-up dates will not be rescheduled to accommodate a coach's schedule.
- If all coaches for one of the teams will not be in attendance for the make-up game, the League Director(s) need to be contacted and a forfeit may occur for that team.
